Tony's top tip – great-value NEW white from southern France (p.25)

Hello from Tony

It's a wonderful feeling, isn't it, arriving at check-in to find you've been upgraded? Without paying a penny extra! Especially nostalgic after being grounded for a couple of years ...

In the last two years you've been amazing in your support of our family of winemakers worldwide so, with travel restrictions easing, now feels like the time to thank you by bringing back VIP Upgrades – on us.

We kick off with a bang, as you'll see on the right. Our most popular wine of all time, Australia's blockbusting Black Stump ... plus luxurious Reserve ... with a $48 saving.

The VIP Upgrades come thick and fast after that though. You'll find a host of our bestsellers – with their next-level special editions – across pages 4-11. Reds, whites, even fizz, all with bumper savings to boot.

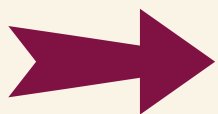

And to make sure everyone bags an Upgrade, all 12-bottle orders placed before Wednesday 9th March will enjoy a FREE Mystery Bottle too. Better still, three very lucky orders will hit the jackpot because their cases will include a bottle normally $1400 – yes, you read that right! Wines normally $1400 each. Now that really is an Upgrade!

Here's to VIP treatment – wine-style. You've earned it.

BLACK STUMP LUXURY — ON US

We kick off Upgrade month with an epic deal.
For the first time ever, eight bottles of our No.1
wine plus four of its luxury edition ... just £8.99 each

The Black Stump is our all-time bestselling wine ... by miles.

That indulgent combination of rich, spicy
Shiraz and velvety, oh-so-fruity Durif brought together by winemaking genius
Alan Kennett just can't be topped.

Except, perhaps, by its own luxury edition — pure Shiraz, hand-selected by Alan as being the best of the vintage.

No surprise that The Black Stump Reserve boasts thousands of its own fans, and 5-star reviews by the hundred.

So how better to start our month of VIP Upgrades than by giving our all-time No.1 the treatment?

In this VIP Upgrade Showcase you'll bag eight bottles of classic Black Stump (well over 4,000 5-star reviews and counting) plus, for special occasions, four bottles of the luxurious Reserve edition.

The best bit? At just £8.99 a bottle it's not just better than classic Black Stump's normal price ($11.99 a bottle), but it's the best price the Reserve edition has ever been (normally $14.99). You'll save $48.

£124

"Really lovely wine, one of my favourites. And the Reserva is so much richer!"

"Love the Full Fifteen anyway. But this is a step up the ladder"

"Wonderful smooth red. What you expect from Cabalié and so much more"

Your all-time favourite Black Reds alongside their luxury editions ... with the extra cost of those elite wines on the house. Upgrade your rack – from just £8.99 a bottle!

Black Reds are incredibly rich, dark and smooth. Easy to drink yet so satisfying. Now take your Black Red experience to the next level with these bestsellers and their deluxe partners. The smart reserves are made from finest fruit, aged in best barrels and taste magnificent. Yours at no extra cost – to thank you for your loyalty.

Centre stage is Cabalié – the juicy southern French star that's our most re-ordered red – and its old-vine 'big brother'. Bolder, blacker and even juicier.

Enjoy some more glorious southern French warmth and character in Le XV du Président and its Réserve edition (made from the fruit of century-old vines). And for Aussie Black Red fans there's berry-laden Full Fifteen and its opulent Réserve edition (normally £17.49 a bottle).

Southern Italy provides brambly Pillastro and its magnificent 'step up' partner Selezione d'Oro (Gold label, Gold medal and 24-carat quality from first sip to last) and the pedigree releases of Corsiero Nero.

Portugal's Lobo e Falcão and its velvety, fruit-packed Réserve complete your case in classic, ultra-indulgent style.

Great value at $9.99 a bottle. But take two cases and that price drops to just $8.99. The perfect upgrade for Black Red fans.

Welcome to the white wine First Class lounge. And, boy, did it prove popular when we launched it last year!

Here's the deal. We've matched four bestselling white styles with their premium partners – special wines with even more flavour, depth and quality.

And that taste of luxury costs you no extra, so you get to enjoy elite wines that are normally up to £22 – for just £9.85 a bottle. That's a handy case saving of £50. And just look at the superb lineup ...

Sauvignon fans are in for some treats. Because alongside New Zealand's tropical Mahau Sound is the even more opulent Mussel Pot Reserve. And complementing the Loire's elegant Abbessé is scintillating Vincent Grall Sancerre.

South Africa's Bees Knees wows everyone with its floral aroma and zesty freshness, but wait til you try richer, more voluptuous Queen Bee. Finally there's Campanula, our top-selling Pinot Grigio, and Italian superstar East by North East. What a case – enjoy your upgrade.

STEP UP TO PREMIUM PROSECCO

Smash-hit bestseller plus luxury edition – just £9.99 a bottle

Alessandro Gallici is the prince of Prosecco. From humble origins, he got to know the growers like family ... earned first pick of the grapes ... and made Prosecco that stole your hearts.

His signature fizz has been a 5-star bestseller for years now ... but in 2019, to celebrate Tony Laithwaite's 50th year in wine, he made something extra special.

Just looking at the diamond-like Anniversario takes your breath away. But taste confirms this isn't style over substance. So elegant, fresh and gorgeously fruity – the result of small batches of Alessandro's very best grapes.

Today you'll enjoy four bottles of the classic (normally £15.49) plus two Anniversario bottles (normally £18.99) as your VIP Upgrade – all just £9.99 a bottle.

MEET THE GOD FAVA UPGRADE

New vintage of your No.1 Portuguese Black Red Reserva ... just ~~£15.49~~ £10.99

Hard to think of a wine that's ever had a reception like Vinha do Fava Reserva.

It's the luxury edition of Vinha do Fava – our bestselling Black Red from Portugal – made from the same 100-Gold medal vineyard but in smaller batches lavished with time in best oak barrels.

We launched it two years ago and it sold out in 24 hours. Then the 5-star reviews started flying in – by the hundred.

So we went back to Portuguese supremo Jaime Quendera, begging for more. He obliged (he'd seen what you'd written about it) ... and the same thing happened.

We've had an advance taste of his new Gold-medal 2020 vintage. It's everything Fava Reserva fans have come to expect.

Think luscious purple fruits with lashings of sweet, toasty oak spices and a velvety texture that goes on forever.

The 'God Fava' of Portuguese upgrades. Yours today for just ~~£15.49~~ £10.99 a bottle. Now that's an offer you can't refuse!

MATURE BORDEAUX

Plus free Carafe

Enjoy dinner-table-ready, mature clarets from just £13.99 a bottle – plus a FREE
Dartington Crystal Carafe with early orders

Here's a treat for claret lovers – a case of complex, mellow reds from great recent vintages. Now at their drinking peak, they're ready to enjoy from the moment you pull the cork. Expect classic cassis and cedar aromas, concentrated black fruit flavours and gentle oak spice.

And what a case it is ... 106 years of maturity, 17 Gold medals, 9 Cru Bourgeois, a Saint-Emilion Grand Cru ... plus a FREE Dartington Crystal Carafe for early orders – and a saving of up to £186!

Leading the way is silky, supple Château Ramage La Batisse 2011 (normally £27), a Cru Bourgeois with over a decade of ageing – and three Gold medals. Located on the borders of Pauillac, close to £500 a bottle Lafite, it's a very smart buy.

Château Blaignan is a triple-Gold Cru Bourgeois from the 2016 vintage, while Château Prieuré Les Tours 2015 from Graves is a Gold-medal winner in another hallowed year. Then there's Château Saint Jean de Béard 2016 (normally £22), a Saint-Emilion Grand Cru made at a renowned estate run by the same family for nine generations.

Named are just a few highlights, but each bottle here shows the exceptional value and quality you can find in Bordeaux when you have a local buying office sniffing out the best deals.

You can enjoy them all for £14.99 a bottle if you take one case. But take two cases and that bottle price drops to just £13.99 – with that spectacular £186 saving.

It pays to act fast too because the first 400 orders will receive a FREE Dartington Crystal Carafe (normally £40) – the ideal way to serve these wines in style. Hurry!

If you've ever seen the film Sideways you'll know the score.

There are so, so few places in the world where Pinot Noir reaches the peak of its silky, beautifully perfumed perfection, but California's coast is one of them.

Year-round sunshine, cool breezes and fog off the Pacific – the perfect combination for freshness and elegance.

No wonder Californian Pinot got a starring role in its own Hollywood film!

The problem is, the film made it so in-demand that prising any away from those Hollywood stars isn't easy.

But "more Californian Pinot please" is such a common request from customers that we're always on the look out.

Purple Owl is the name given to small, secret parcels that our on-the-ground buyer Clare is occasionally offered by some of California's best cellars.

We have to keep the names quiet – their usual prices are much higher – but the quality you get for the money is superb.

Breathtakingly smooth and billowing with black cherry, raspberry and gentle oak, this is a true film star Pinot Noir. And it's yours for just ~~£14.99~~ £9.99 a bottle – a 33% SAVING. How's that for a wise wine choice?

MAESTRO'S NEW ROCK STAR RED

Showcase deal

His Chiantis are bestsellers and his new ripasso turns the flavour dial up to 11. Taste them all and SAVE £42

Paolo Masi is the classical pianist who just turned rock and roll.

We've been buying his Chianti for over 30 years ... in fact when we first met the Masis we were buying from his dad!

But Paolo's more than just a chip off the old block. Top of his winemaking class, he's gone on to win awards by the hatful.

If you've ever attended one of our wine shows, you've probably met him. He's ever-present on the stands, always keen to pour glasses and share stories.

All that skill and heritage ... on top of his rapport with our customers ... mean that for all those years, Paolo's Chiantis have been our bestsellers by miles.

They're the essence of classic Chianti, full of red fruit and gentle oak spice.

But Paolo's noticed that you've fallen hard for a new style – ripasso.

That's the technique of adding dried grapes to the wine for extra body and richness. Expensive – yields are much lower – but flavours ramp up to the max.

Paolo being Paolo, he was determined to make your new favourite style his own. So today we're thrilled to launch Contrappasso – Paolo's ripasso red.

Rippling with velvet-smooth black fruits, it's a power-blast of sheer flavour. A big departure from the Tuscany norm ... and a rock and roll new look for classical Paolo.

It's already proven its quality – a Gold medal and a whopping 93-point score.

He's in celebration mood – and keen to share it. So today you'll enjoy £48 off a case – just ~~£13.99~~ £9.99 a bottle.

But given the popularity of his bestselling Chiantis and Tuscan reds, our tip is to take the whole Paolo Showcase! Just $9.99 a bottle, with a $42 SAVING on the lot.

FOUNTAINS OF FLAVOUR!

Charming, fruit-filled taste of south-west France from Gascony's rising star – SAVE £24

We grabbed this cracking parcel of Colombard wine from young Vincent Debets, down south in the Gers, and wanting to seal in all its zippy freshness, quickly bottled it after adding yet more flavours – 'Fountains' of flavours in fact – with a touch of our own Bordeaux Sauvignon Blanc. (Hence it's now a VdF; Vin de France, a two-region wine.)

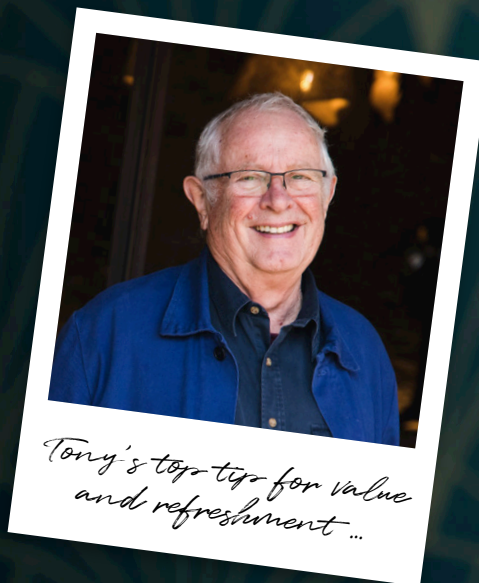

The result is impressive. Les Fontaines is great for fish dishes, as you'd expect, but also it makes a crisp anytime apéritif/chatting-with-mates wine ... all citrus and tropical fruits.

Colombard can be very classy indeed. It's all down to what the individual winemaker wants to make and their level of skill. Vincent is one of the top half-dozen producers in the whole area. We were so lucky to get this at such a good price but we know him well and the market is all over the place right now. Closed restaurants and very few tourists – particularly us Brits. (We've loved the region for centuries – and that love is reciprocated.) So great deals arise.

This was a really good one. We grabbed it. You should do the same. It's launched today for just ~~£9.99~~ £7.99 a bottle.

Wine tastes better when it's made by people you like, right? So I'm always on the look out for winemakers making a real difference (while also making great wine, of course). My go-to is currently St Sebastian Bay – a citrus-fresh South African white from Journey's End. They've been named Drinks Business' 'Ethical Company of the Year' and our 'Winery of the Year'. Every sip is full of crisp lemon and bright gooseberries – just the thing to have chilling in the fridge.

I'm always scanning the wine-world horizon for the next big thing. And for Sauvignon, at the moment that means Chile. The Maule Valley, in the foothills of Chile's Andes, is a winemaker's dream. Here the hot sunny days, clear air and cool, brisk nights make for perfectly ripe and exhilaratingly fresh Sauvignon. The value is amazing. Fray Leon is my top choice – think zingy citrus, fleshy peach and floral aromatics. My ideal glass at the end of a long day.

It's got to be classic New Zealand for me! When you're looking for a glass to really sing with flavour then Marlborough Sauvignon Blanc is a must. Big, bold, and a bit on the flashy side. This is a wine that always reminds me of sunny days and long afternoons. Hole in the Clouds is the Sauvignon chilling in my fridge right now. Full of guava, passion fruit and lime flavour. It's just made for pouring into large glasses and sharing with friends.

I love the adventure of a new wine from a new place. So I'm reaching for the real surprises coming out of Moldova at the moment. Like Château Vartely – a joy! This is Sauvignon, but not as you know it. A brilliantly fresh blend of the native Feteasca Regala grape and crisp, grassy Sauvignon Blanc. It's highly aromatic, vibrant and elegant. Something for those who love to be surprised and to have a story to share around the dinner table.

ROBERT

I'll always choose French Sauvignon. It's where the grape first started, after all. Not as 'in your face' as southern hemisphere Sauvignon, I think it makes for great entertaining or date night wine. Méritoire is the bottle I reach for time and time again. A blend of two parcels of grapes – one from warmer, sunnier slopes to deliver ripe tropical fruit flavour, the other from a cooler, higher site for that citrus zing. An ideal balance, with so much sophistication.

You don't always want a wine to be complicated. That's why I love a Sauvignon that's enjoyable, crisp and easy-going. Something you can pour with confidence, knowing everyone around the table is going to enjoy it. McPherson's Pickles is a fab example (plus at 11.5% abv that second glass is even more inviting). The flavour is exactly what you want from a Sauvignon, while still being super-easy drinking. Really refreshing, with nice citrusy, juicy flavours.

Lemon-green with golden glints. Seductive peach and apricot aromas, crisp citrus and pear flavours, a touch of mineral and a mouthwatering finish. Mesmerising, crisp, vivacious and the ideal partner for seafood dishes.

If you handle the goods whilst in your possession in a way which would not be permitted in a shop, we will reduce your refund to reflect the reduction in the value of the goods.
