THANK YOU EDITION

Welcome

Liz Smith, Cellar Director

This month marks a Club tradition older than anyone can quite remember, as our network of winemakers around the world offer gifts of thanks for your support over the past year.

Whether it started in the 1980s or 90s, one thing is certain – members love this annual opportunity. Even better, today marks a new record for free magnums, from winemakers who won't soon forget how you stepped in when their bar and restaurant clients were shuttered.

So against a background of household names shrinking their products we bring you quite the opposite ... around 4,000 free magnums as a 'thank you' from longstanding winemaker friends.

You'll find the gifts sprinkled across the following pages, waiting to be claimed when you take advantage of the deals.

Meanwhile on page 20 we introduce a red wine to add some sparkle to summer gatherings – straight from the ice bucket ...

Bologna has always been a hothouse of remarkable food and drink, and in L'Occhiolino (Locky to its friends) you have a red that's surprisingly sparkling ... is served chilled ... and is refreshingly lower in alcohol for summer socialising.

We love it – do let us know what you and your friends think.

A word to the wise before I leave you to peruse the 'thank you deals' – a prompt order is strongly advised.

Enjoy your wines,

Liz Smith.

500 FREE La Belle Saison Sauvignon magnums!
The great Thank You Deal event starts here ...

Ah, you know summer's arrived when the flowers are in full bloom, the sun's shining ... and you savour your first mouthwatering glass of La Belle Saison.

Hervé Sabardeil's dazzling Sauvignon is just perfect for this time of year. So fresh and fruity – and made from the choicest grapes grown across southern France's sun-drenched Languedoc-Roussillon.

Hervé is the master grape hunter. His 2CV and unrivalled local expertise help him find the vineyards that other, bigger producers overlook.

This latest release has already racked up two Gold medals ... and stacks of 5-star online reviews.

Customers and critics alike just love the seductive cut-grass aromas and gentle tropical fruit flavours of summer – yours for just ~~£10.99~~ £7.99 a bottle when you buy 12.

And, of course, there's that FREE 1.5l magnum with 12 or more bottles. 500 are up for grabs. Hervé's big thank you for making La Belle Saison so popular.

P.S. This full-flavoured Sauvignon comes in at a modest, lunch-friendly 9.5% alcohol. Another reason to order now.

LAND A MAGNUM of ‘The Roman Red’

Celebrating our first red to hit 5,000
5-star reviews – with 900 FREE magnums

Cabalié is the red you come back for above all others. In fact, it's been our No.1 most re-ordered wine for the last five years.

This fruit-filled beauty is made to a style said to have been enjoyed by Roman legionaries in ancient Gaul. And it's much loved today – pulling in more than 5,000 5-star reviews!

It's made from the very best southern French old-vine Grenache, Syrah and Carignan grapes. The pick of the vintage – which gives you so much spiced berry flavour and such satisfying richness.

From just £8.99 a bottle – and with a FREE magnum on orders of 12 or more bottles if you're quick.

It's your thank you for helping to make ‘The Roman Red’ such a 5-star triumph.

DEVILISHLY DELICIOUS RED Divine deal

Super-juicy, Gold-medal-winning Rex Mundi
– 500 FREE magnums up for grabs

It might look like a bit of a beast. But check out the online love for Rex Mundi, the fruit-filled southern French red that seduces everyone from the word go.

It comes from the craggy hillsides of the Languedoc, where the medieval Cathars lived in awe of the evil god Rex Mundi.

And it's another masterpiece from Hervé Sabardeil – who sends heartfelt thanks, big hugs – and a FREE magnum when you order 12 or more bottles.

NO.1 ITALIAN BLACK RED

Thanks to you

Pillastro king Angelo raises his glass ... and offers
400 FREE magnums for fast-acting customers

Angelo Maci's deep, soulful Pillastro has been delighting Black Red fans for many years. And customers have ordered in huge numbers, making this southern Italian superstar an all-time bestseller.

So Angelo would like to thank you with a FREE magnum when you order 12 or more bottles of Pillastro. 400 big 1.5l bottles in all – first come, first served.

He'd also like to raise a big glass to you. Puglian reds were little known when we launched Pillastro – but you latched straight on to the quality and value.

That support enabled Angelo to secure the future of dozens of small-scale, hard-working local grape growers. Every week the Maci family invite them round to break bread and share a glass or two. A lovely way of life – preserved thanks to you.

Pillastro is just as friendly and sociable as Angelo. It's a big, ripe expression of the local Primitivo grape and delivers plum, spiced raspberry and vanilla flavours aplenty.

It's won more than 50 awards and has an army of loyal fans.

Please act now to secure your thank you Pillastro magnum.

JURASSIC RED

Monster deal

A FREE magnum of Stones & Bones from Portugal's prehistoric estate – first 500 orders only “Portugal is the land the wine buyers forgot,” wrote The Telegraph. Well, not ours. And not our customers, who have made this Black Red an epic triumph ... from ‘the estate that time forgot’.

You see, the vineyards that supply grapes for Stones & Bones have also yielded a remarkable number of dinosaur fossils down the years. So you're on a wine adventure millions years in the making!

And well worth waiting for, judging by the many pages of 5-star customer reviews for Stones & Bones.

It's brimming with intense blackberry, plum and vanilla flavours and has an incredibly long, smooth, gently spicy finish. Hugely impressive.

And from a winemaker with a giant reputation. Diogo Sepúlveda earned his stripes in the fine wine heartlands of Pomerol and the Barossa Valley.

But this wine is personal, a Black Red from home turf, near Lisbon – and he's delighted that you love it so much.

That's why there's a FREE magnum for the first 500 customers ordering 12 or more bottles of Stones & Bones.

A monster giveaway – don't miss out.

KING OF THE BIG REDS

Magnum scrum down

Rugby-loving villagers' celebratory Big Red ...
400 heavyweight magnums up for grabs

"Crouch, bind, set" ... and get ready to scrummage for your FREE magnum of the original 'King of the Big Reds' when you order 12 or more bottles.

Mind you, order your case of Le XV du Président right now and you'll be over the line without even breaking a sweat or getting your knees dirty.

It's nearly 30 years since we came across Le XV. A mighty red reserved for celebrating the hard-fought victories of a rugby-mad southern French village.

These days Le XV is a little more refined, but it still has enough flavour and powerful smoothness to satisfy an entire front row of heavyweight forwards.

It's made with super-concentrated fruit from ancient Grenache vines. The aromas transport you to southern France: fig, thyme, fennel and spice. Velvety, plummy, rich and, at 14%, a red to savour slowly.

Just £9.99 a bottle for a 12-bottle case or £8.99 with the two-case deal – plus FREE magnums with the first 400 orders of either option. That's a result!

BIG RED FANS:

Fill your boots Full Fifteen bonanza

Full Fifteen maker Jo Nash wants to say "good on yer" with a special collection, £52 saving and 400 FREE magnums

The Full Fifteen is a super-juicy, richly satisfying Big Red that shakes you by the hand and says "G'day"!

It was created by Andrew 'Big Mack' McPherson, a winemaking legend Down Under. So when he handed over Full Fifteen duties to his new head winemaker Jo Nash, she had very big boots to fill.

Jo rose to the challenge immediately, giving The Full Fifteen an extra touch of elegant oak to go with the wine's velvety richness and super-ripe plum and damson flavours.

Customers loved it. Jo wants to say cheers with this special collection: nine bottles of Full Fifteen (normally £11.99) and three bottles of Full Fifteen Reserve (a luxury, barrel-matured Shiraz Cabernet from premium Victoria vineyards that's normally £17.49). This superb dozen is all yours for just £8.99 a bottle.

Plus there's a FREE Full Fifteen magnum for the first 400 customers to order.

YOUR NO.1 AUSSIE WHITE Sunshine in a glass

400 magnum-sized thank yous from the Yarrunga team ...
the perfect bottle for any summer gathering

When mouthwatering Yarrunga Field first appeared 20 years ago, BBC Food and Drink programme called our new arrival “Aussie sunshine in a glass.”

We couldn't have summed up this fresh, tropical fruit-packed style any better. It's a wine that speaks of its sun-drenched home and sums up the bright, breezy attitude of our brilliant Oz suppliers.

It's still among our top-selling Aussie whites. And in terms of total sales down the years, it's right up there in first place.

To thank you for making this such a smash hit, the family-run cellar behind Yarrunga Field would like you to enjoy a FREE magnum when you order a case of 12.

Yarrunga's secret is that it's just so darn easy to enjoy. Lots of peach and melon flavours, a touch of spice and a lovely creamy texture. And at 11% alcohol, it's perfect to share over a long lunch.

Pull up a garden chair, put on your shades and get ready to enjoy some pure Aussie sunshine.

PROVENCE ROSÉ Debut deal

Rosé fans rejoice ... here's our very first thank you deal on fine Provence rosé – yours for just ~~£12.99~~ £8.99 a bottle

It's difficult to believe, but we've never included a rosé in our thank you deals before. Quite an oversight as rosé sales have soared in the last couple of years, especially during the summer months.

Because when the sun's shining and you want to imagine yourself down by the Med, there's only one style to have on your table ... refreshing Provence rosé.

So we're delighted to offer L'Art Provençal rosé at just ~~£12.99~~ £8.99 a bottle – that's a handy 30% OFF. (You can also SAVE 10% on the wine box.)

Provence is the world epicentre for pale, sophisticated pinks that deliver delicate citrus and summer berry flavours. And L'Art Provençal is a classic of the style.

It's crafted by the Bréban family, high in the hills above the Côte d'Azur. They've supplied us for decades and want to thank you for your support, especially now their much-loved pink has a new label design inspired by the many artists who make their home in Provence.

Customers seem to love it too. One wrote this 5-star review: “Never tasted such a great rosé (perhaps I should keep quiet before re-ordering. Bought it as I love the label and also the rosé.”

SAVE £50 on New Zealand's Split Rock Sauvignon ...
a little thank you for making this a superstar white

Split Rock Bay is famous for two things: the ocean rock that is so perfectly divided it looks man-made ... and the family-made Sauvignon that has been thrilling white wine fans for years.

It's a Kiwi classic that's bursting with grassy aromas and guava, gooseberry and lime flavours. And you've sent it soaring up the sales charts. So today Split Rock is just £13.99 £9.79 a bottle ... a thank you saving direct from its makers.

Like all good things, this Sauvignon was born out of love. In 1970 Hermann Seifried, then a fresh-faced Austrian wine nut seeking adventure, travelled to New Zealand, where he fell in love with a local primary school teacher, Agnes.

They married and very soon the couple realised their shared dream – to plant a vineyard – and have since racked up a host of awards. Today their three children, Chris, Heidi and Anna, help run the property in Nelson – a region with over 2,400 hours of sunshine a year. The sunniest spot in New Zealand, no less.

Which is why Split Rock is so ripe, aromatic and packed with flavour. Try it chilled, outside in the garden with friends ... and enjoy a £50 saving direct from the Seifried family.

Split Rock makers, the Seifried family, would like to raise a glass to you ...

Joyous fizz and smart white original – from just £6.99 a bottle

Livewire Alessandro Gallici is always smiling and joking. But he's deadly serious about making great wine, having mastered his craft at big-name wineries in the alpine foothills of Friuli before setting up on his own.

We've supported Alessandro from the start, so you get VIP access to his wines ... and thank you deals like these – 30% OFF a pair of his bestselling wines.

First up is his signature Frizzante. It comes from the heart of Prosecco country and has the fresh pear and apple flavours of Italy's favourite fizz, with a little extra richness thanks to a dash of Chardonnay. Alessandro prefers it that way, though breaking the rules means he can't put Prosecco on the label. But you benefit from a delicious bottle of bubbly at exceptional value – even better here at just £9.99 £6.99 a bottle.

Then there's Visionario, the type of elegant, dry white blend you'll find on wine lists in the smart restaurants of Verona. Golden, floral and bursting with citrus and stone fruit flavours, it should be the go-to for your next dinner party – and it's just £12.99 £8.99 a bottle.

Celebration time

ULTIMATE DEAL ON NO.1 FIZZ

The vintage bubbly that's "just like good Champagne but a third the price" plus its special luxury edition

Roche Lacour Crémant de Limoux has been at the centre of customers' celebrations for many years. A vintage bubbly made just like top Champagne ... but at a way lower, superb-value price.

Today that legendary value hits a new level. Because this showcase gives you nine bottles of Roche Lacour 2020 – "just like good Champagne" says one customer review, and normally £15.99 – plus three bottles of even more luxurious Roche Lacour Réserve 2016 (normally £19.99) ... all for just £11.99 a bottle.

They're both aged in the medieval cellars beneath ancient Limoux in southern France where, according to historians, sparkling wine was invented.

Roche Lacour is loved for its elegance and biscuity richness, qualities that are amplified in the deluxe edition (which is barrel-aged, just like Krug Champagne).

Two very smart sparkling buys – in one great-value showcase. Don't miss out.

RAISE A TOAST, LOWER THE ALCOHOL

Smash-hit fizz, available in classic bottles or handy, picnic-friendly cans

Enjoying good fizz is such a memorable experience. The spectacular pop of the cork. The fresh flavours, dancing bubbles and creamy mousse. Pure joy!

Edenvale delivers all that magic. The only thing missing is the alcohol. So if you're taking things easy or on driver duty, there's no need to deny yourself all the things you love about great fizz.

It's made by Australia's leading makers of low-alcohol wines. They craft it just like a regular fizz, then remove the alcohol.

Nothing artificial. Just tropical fruit aromas, lively citrus flavours and elegant bubbles. You'll be surprised by how good this is. And it's just £4.99 a bottle – or even better value at £5.99 for four 250ml cans.

SUMMER RED JUST GOT

SPARKLY

Perfect for chilling – in every sense – meet Bologna's best-kept secret
... just add friends, sunshine and long, lazy afternoons.

You can't beat that feeling when you're let in on a hidden gem and L'Occhiolino is set to delight this summer ... we've already had reports of BBQ guests skipping around the garden at the taste of it.

Red wine just found its sparkle

Beyond the ripe cherry aromas and soft berry flavours, you'll discover a light froth of pretty pink bubbles. L'Occhiolino is gently sparkling Italian red at its easy-going best.

And just quietly ... it's a very sociable 7.5%

Which means a wine that doesn't compromise on body or flavour, yet is light enough to enjoy at any time ... spontaneous brunches, stylish picnics or lazing in the garden with friends, long into the evening.

L'Occhiolino (Locky to its friends) is made for casual enjoyment so serve it in flutes, regular wine glasses ... or even tumblers. Just make sure it's nice and chilled, to bring those flavours and magical bubbles to life.

From a city of hidden gems

Full of Italian charm ...
and lively bubbles

It's from a family of growers who've tended vines near the gourmet hub of Bologna for generations – but we discovered it being enjoyed off-menu by the local 'in' crowd, over Sunday brunch no less. Smitten, we raced to get it to you for summer!

What's in a name?

L'Occhiolino (locky-oh-leeno) means 'the wink'. Like the waiter's knowing look when you ask for the wine everyone is drinking, but you can't find it on the tourist menu.

For today's launch offer it's just £12 £9 a pop ... an uplifting taste of the good life at a case saving of £36. Seriously recommended, but prompt orders advised!

ELDERFLOWER Margarita

What you need ...

50ml Cazcabel tequila
25ml Chase Elderflower Liqueur
25ml fresh lime juice
Lime slice for garnish

How to make it ...

1. Pour all ingredients into a cocktail shaker with ice
2. Shake, shake, shake!
3. Strain and serve with a lime wheel slice garnish

FRENCH 75

What you need ...

25ml Sipsmith London Dry Gin
10ml fresh lemon juice
10ml simple sugar syrup
Alessandro Gallici Prosecco
Lemon twist for garnish

How to make it ...

1. Add the gin, lemon juice and sugar syrup to a shaker
2. Shake with ice and strain into a flute or coupe
3. Top with Prosecco and add the lemon twist

The perfect cocktail is all about balance; that precise combination of spirit, sharp and a touch of sweetness. Nothing quite beats it on a hot summer's evening.

So this month we've rounded up our favourite recipes to share. Whether you're looking to step up your G&T game (with our not-so-secret ingredient), or are after the last word in pre-dinner sophistication (hello French 75), you're sure to find something to delight.

APEROL G&T

What you need ...

25ml Aperol Aperitivo
50ml Sipsmith London Dry Gin
London Tonic (Classic or Skinny)
Orange twist for garnish

How to make it ...

1. Fill a tall glass with plenty of ice
2. Pour the gin and Aperol over the ice and top with tonic water
3. Give it a stir and serve with an orange twist

MIX LIKE A MASTER

1. Shake your ingredients with ice in a metal cocktail shaker for 8-10 seconds to make sure they are fully combined.
2. For the best flavour, always use freshly squeezed lemon or lime juice. It's worth the effort, we promise!
3. If serving over ice, be sure to fill your glass – it stops the ice melting too quickly.

PALOMA

What you need ...

50ml Cazcabel Tequila
10ml agave syrup
10ml fresh lime juice
Pink Citrus Tonic
Grapefruit for garnish

How to make it ...

1. Shake together the first three ingredients over ice
2. Strain into a tumbler
3. Top with pink citrus tonic and serve with a salt rim and grapefruit wedge

AT HOME WITH THE 'LIP STINGER' Picpoul de Pinet

This month The Club looks at how Picpoul went from threatened with extinction to summer's hottest ticket and the natural choice with seafood

It's not the most promising of names, is it? 'Lip stinger'. But that's what Picpoul means in the local dialect around the harbour at Sète.

And once you see how this lemony, refreshing white makes waves with seafood you'll be hooked ... even better, booking a visit in summer.

"What grows together goes together"

When we celebrate classic food and wine matches – the pairs murmuring "you complete me" as they blossom on your palate – Picpoul and oysters is a relative newcomer.

That's because up until the 1960s few thought of this part of France as a tourist destination. Remarkably. And anyway isn't the Languedoc known for its sun-drenched reds?

Then an energetic chap called Etienne Farras took over the main winery in the village of Pinet and set about proving to local restaurateurs that Picpoul de Pinet was the perfect wine with seafood. Forget Chablis, said Etienne, move over Muscadet.

Soon enough a modern classic was born and with growing tourism came wider recognition – in fact today a third of all Picpoul is sent to the UK.

So when old friend Floris Lemstra at Château Canet wanted to show us how amazing his latest Picpoul tastes, he did an Etienne ... and took us to an oyster farm to witness the two in concert.

The wine's lemony tang, green-apple zip and scent of the sea are a joy with creamy, nutty Étang de Thau oysters (not to mention, out of French earshot, grilled cod).

Then Monsieur Masson the ostreiculteur leans in to tell us most folks eat oysters the wrong way.

Spend a little more on Picpoul and the wine really starts to sing from the glass

Dockside with winemaker Floris and father-daughter oyster team Agathe and Jean-Louis Masson

(massonfilles.com if you fancy visiting)

If you swallow sans chewing, he says, you just get the flavour of the sea. And the number of the chewing? Eight, apparently. So now you know.

Two curiosities to mention

Picpoul has been written about for 700 years but was originally a red. What happened? A natural mutation at some point and the villagers decided they rather liked the white ... perhaps the red wasn't much chop alongside their catch of the day.

Secondly, and equally obscurely, Picpoul is still a permitted grape to use in Châteauneuf-du-Pape red ...

More importantly – how to land a beauty

We love many French co-op wineries, if the winemakers can get control of their growers, but it's not always the case, so here we suggest looking to an estate with quality control from vine to bottle. Ideally Château Canet.

Bright, fresh, nervy, tangy, lemony, racy, whistle-clean ... we can describe it all day long but really you just have to taste it – all that uplifting energy – with a plate of oysters, sure, but it's equally superb with grilled white fish or a traditional fish pie.

Santé!

SECRET RECIPE REVELATION Summer classic

The 'magic combo' white that dazzled Sauvignon lovers is back with a new vintage - LAUNCH DEAL

Cala Rey brings together two zingy grapes that, separately, make stunning whites. But in the same bottle ... just wow. It's the kind of white you can pour when the sun's out and let it keep you refreshed all day long.

A flood of re-orders followed the debut release last summer, before completely selling out. So we're expecting this new GOLD-medal vintage to fly.

So, what's the secret recipe? UK favourite Sauvignon Blanc is added to Verdejo - Spain's white of choice. It's a thrilling style that's served in seafront restaurants up and down the Mediterranean coast.

Olly Smith of The Daily Mail says "If you enjoy Sauvignon, you're going to love Verdejo. It has a bit more texture and peachiness but still packs plenty of thrilling zing." With Sauvignon and Verdejo in the same bottle ... to repeat: WOW.

Cala Rey shows off this combination beautifully, courtesy of winemaker Diego Lopez. His sunshine-soaked vineyards in La Mancha sit at 1,200 metres above sea level. Perfect conditions for the ripest, freshest white grapes. And you can taste it in every sip of his racy new vintage.

A real bargain at just ~~£11.99~~ £7.99 a bottle.

Make way for the Italians! A 5-star mix of the lip-smacking style they've perfected – includes a £19.99 luxury treat

What a collection for Pinot Grigio fans. Six big customer favourites, all showing exactly why the Italians are considered the masters of this crowd-pleasing grape. Making up most of your collection is a medley of favourites from northern Italy – the spiritual heartland for great Pinot Grigio. The sunny alpine slopes produce a mountain-fresh style loved by all.

East by North East (normally £19.99) has to be the highlight, made by a 100-point winemaker. It wows with its zesty candied peel and peach notes. And to show you that great Pinot Grigio can be made across Italy, we've also included Sicily's super-ripe, mouthwatering Il Papavero. Yours at £7.99 a bottle for a 12-bottle case. SAVE 27% on Italy's fine white superstar

Here's a deal to get fine white fans excited. Gavi is one of Italy's most famous whites, and the especially good ones come from the 'classico' part of the region – where the Gavi whites were first made, and the oldest and best vines grow. Villa Broglia is one such example: fresh and racy, with subtle almond complexity. It even won a Trophy at the International Wine Challenge – their top award. They called it "Gavi di Gavi at its best".

The latest release is on top form: "best in class for the price," says one customer. Yours today with £60 off a case of 12.

WATCH OUT Burgundy!

The under-the-radar Chardonnay that's a dead ringer for France's finest – 30% OFF

What white wine lover doesn't dream of uncorking something special from one of the big Burgundy names? Just a shame there's normally a high price involved.

However, there are remote regions in southern France that offer gorgeous Chardonnays of Burgundian class and elegance for a fraction of the price ... if you know where to look.

That's where our buyer Mark Hoddy comes in, our man on the ground with a talent for spotting bargains.

Les Cailloux Dorés is one of those discoveries, from rugged sun-facing mountainside vineyards just south of Carcassonne. The cooling high altitude and long sunny days make it a little paradise for growing Chardonnay grapes of the highest quality.

Customers have already cottoned on to the superb value this wine offers – it's been a bit of a sleeper hit for years. But today we're giving it the spotlight it deserves, with a deal to get it into your glass. Yours for just £12.99 £8.99 a bottle.

We'll leave the last word here to this very happy Chardonnay fan's online review:

Your guide to the TREASURES OF FRANCE'S SOUTH

Enjoy 30% OFF a medley of classic southern French whites – Sauvignon Blanc, Picpoul, Provence Blanc and more Southern France offers a treasure trove of classic styles for lovers of the freshest whites. There's just so much for the wine adventurer to discover, with value that rewards those who step off the beaten path. It's why these bottles have become such big customer favourites, yours to enjoy in this special summer mix.

Cabalié Blanc sets the tone, loved for its nectarine and melon flavours.

Three Gold-medal winners next in zesty Le Citronnier, elegant Guyendac from the famous appellation of Bergerac, and Roche Bellemont – a rare white Provence brimming with sea breeze freshness. You've also got crisp Sauvignon Blanc, lip-smacking Picpoul de Pinet, easy-going 'bistro white' Pigassou Blanc, and an exotic Châteauneuf-style star.

All that quality, yours with 30% OFF.

ELITE LOIRE SAUVIGNON

Fine wine tip

Meet the other half of the Loire Valley's Sauvignon 'power couple' ... and SAVE £48 on a real star buy

Here's a bottle that proves there's more to fine Sauvignon Blanc in the Loire Valley than just Sancerre. And that it pays to look beyond the most famous names.

Domaine de Bel Air comes from Pouilly-Fumé – quite simply one of the best spots in the world for Sauvignon of the highest quality and freshness.

But Pouilly-Fumé is so often overlooked in favour of the big name next door, Sancerre. A crying shame, if you ask us! Because while demand and prices for Sancerre have skyrocketed, Pouilly-Fumé has remained stable. That means you often get a lot more for your money.

Especially with bottles like Domaine de Bel Air, made by a family that's been tending their premium vineyards for an unbelievable 13 generations.

With this in your glass, you'll enjoy unmatched Sauvignon know-how and a wine with pure mouthwatering fruit and mineral expression, plus that classic smoky character that makes Pouilly-Fumé so special. All at a price that'd make the winemakers over in Sancerre blush.

At just £14.99 a bottle, down from £18.99, this really is a bargain for fans of classic whites and the finest Sauvignon Blanc.

CALLING ALL SAUVIGNON LOVERS

Please step this way!

SAVE 30% on the favourites that you've helped propel to the top of our Sauvignon charts – includes bestsellers from New Zealand and beyond. Your sunshine sipping, sorted

Demand for Sauvignon Blanc is high all year round ... but really rockets as we head towards the sunny summer months.

No big secret why! It's by far the UK's first-choice white, with flavours that were just made for sunshine sipping. So we've put together a case of favourites really hitting the spot with customers.

And it's 30% OFF with today's deal. Here's your lineup in full:

• Atakarma (normally £9.99) – tasty new arrival from a Chilean winery listed in Wine & Spirits magazine's 'World Top 100'. Full of dazzling tropical fruits.

• Wolf Point (normally £9.99) – a bright, zippy, citrus-packed Chilean star that has been a long-time hit with customers.

• Nelson Bay (normally £13.99) – just next door to New Zealand's famous Marlborough region is Nelson. It's a sun-bathed paradise for Sauvignon Blanc, making ultra-fresh whites like Nelson Bay.

• Hole in the Clouds (normally £14.99) – luxury Marlborough Sauvignon that shot to bestselling stardom on its debut.

• Long Bay (normally £9.99) – from ocean-cooled vineyards on South Africa's southern tip, this mouthwatering newcomer is taking the charts by storm.

• Fire & Foal (normally £9.99) – as lively as the horse it was named after, this Gold-medal South African favourite is bursting with uplifting gooseberry and kiwi fruit.

For all that thrilling refreshment, you pay just £7.99 a bottle. But this will be very popular, so speedy orders are advised.

WILDLY GOOD CHILEAN MERLOT Launch deal

SAVE 30% on an irresistibly smooth Merlot from a pioneering South American estate

When Chile's Matetic estate first introduced alpacas to their vineyards, the neighbours consigned the winery to the lunatic fringe. But, despite their crazy hair-dos, the animals did a great job of gobbling up pests.

In fact, Matetic's unconventional methods soon paid off. Wine & Spirits magazine has listed them among the Top 100 Wineries of the Year four times now.

The estate's flagship wines regularly scoop 95+ scores from critics... but also come with a premium price tag. Lunatic Fringe gives you a chance to enjoy a pure Merlot from this acclaimed winery, at an affordable price.

Made with grapes from a tiny vineyard close to the Pacific Ocean, it's delightfully fresh, with ripe strawberry and blueberry flavours and a gently spiced finish.

An exciting new arrival in our cellars, this exclusive Merlot from an award-winning estate is a steal even at full price.

And, thanks to our special launch deal, it's yours today for just £6.99 a bottle ... that's insanely good value!

SUPER-SIZED BLACK REDS Top money hack

Here's a Black Reds case that's been upsized in value to give you the equivalent of FOURTEEN bottles for the price of 12

We've all heard of 'shrinkflation'. Your favourite chocolate bar just a got a little smaller, the cereal box feels lighter, the kitchen roll seems thinner – but the price stays the same. It's quite a thing now.

But there's none of that going on with this Black Reds case. In fact, this mix of bestsellers has been 'super-sized', so you get the equivalent of FOURTEEN bottles for the price of 12. How does that work?

Well, the secret's in the box – the Cabalié wine box, to be precise. Because we've swapped out two bottles of our most re-ordered wine of all time and replaced them with a 3-litre wine box holding the same volume as FOUR bottles. Of course, it's exactly the same Gold-medal wine, made by the brilliant Hervé Sabardeil in southern France – it's just in a box.

And the price? The bottle-only case (code M16217) is £8.99 a bottle – great value itself for such a lineup of Black Red icons – The Black Stump, Vinha do Fava and The Waxed Bat to name a few.

But take the super-sized Showcase (code A10235), and you get the bottles shown here plus the 3-litre Cabalié wine box for the equivalent of just £7.71 a bottle.

If you've not tried wine boxes yet, this case is a great way to discover their benefits while enjoying your favourite Black Reds. We've already mentioned the value, but wine boxes are also compact, great for trips away and the wine keeps fresher once opened. Plus, they have a lower carbon footprint than standard glass wine bottles. That's a lot of wins.

So order your super-sized Showcase now – and fight back against shrinkflation!

Black Reds Showcase including Cabalié Wine Box

£147.90 ~~£107.88~~ (10 bottles & 1 wine box)

Equivalent to £7.71 a bottle

Order code: A10235

Please note: The Black Reds Showcase is also available as a 12-bottle case (including two bottles of Cabalié instead of the Cabalié wine box). To order the bottle-only case, visit our website and type the order code M16217 in to the Search box.

Plus FREE Dartington Crystal carafe and cheeseboard – first 400 orders only

This luxurious selection has a lot to shout about. At better than HALF PRICE, it's packed with fine Reservas and rare Gran Reservas from Spain's top regions. Released only when ready to enjoy at their drinking peak, they're ideal for savouring slowly with a special meal.

And what better way to enjoy these spicy, barrel-aged wines than with a Dartington Crystal carafe and cheeseboard set (FREE with the first 400 case orders)?

Say 'Hola' to the stars in your Mature Spanish Reds showcase ...

From sunny Valencia, Palacio del Conde is a gloriously mellow eight-year-old Gran Reserva with two Gold medals under its belt – silky smooth, with soft strawberry and spice aromas. And from a 500-year-old cellar, patiently aged for five years in oak, Ermita de San Lorenzo Gran Selección is at the peak of perfection.

Cariñena, a haven for delicious wines and great value, is home to a pair of the best-loved wines in this case – El Bombero Gran Reserva, the luxury edition of a huge customer favourite, and Gold-medal La Cantera, an exclusive Reserva we've listed for over two decades.

From a terrific family estate in Navarra (Rioja's great-value neighbour), there's Señorío de Sarria – a smooth, Reserva-style red with silky fruit and toasty spice.

And, to complete the set, there's the refined and elegant Bujanda Reserva, from one of Rioja's finest estates. Two years in cask and one in bottle bring together intense fruit and toasty oak.

All for just £8.34 a bottle – with a FREE carafe and cheeseboard if you're quick!

DOUBLE-GOLD AUSSIE RED

Limited release

Finely tuned, barrel-aged Cabernet Shiraz from South Australia's finest vineyards
... SAVE £48

With two Golds and an 'excellent' 95-point rating from Australia's leading independent wine magazine, The Red Sedan has been wowing the judges on some pretty impressive tasting panels.

But that'll be no surprise to anyone who's familiar with RedHeads wines.

A tiny group of dedicated winemakers, RedHeads have been crafting small-batch wines of outstanding quality for over 20 years.

Just as they lovingly preserved the iconic 1966 Ford Falcon Sedan you see on the label, the RedHeads team rescued top-quality grapes from South Australia's best vineyards for this classic Aussie Cabernet Shiraz – saving them from disappearing into corporate blends.

Back at the RedHeads winery, they gave the grapes the attention they deserved – including a lengthy spell in expensive oak barrels for extra depth and complexity.

The result is a deliciously moreish Cabernet Shiraz that punches way above its price point.

It's only available in limited quantities in the UK. So if you want to secure your share ... better step on the gas! Especially with a case saving of £48.

TOP PICKS from Portugal

5-star customer favourites that pack maximum flavour into every glass – from just £7.99 a bottle

‘J-Lo’, the queen of Portuguese Black Reds

Phenomenal! That’s the only word to describe the soaring rise in demand for Portugal’s fruit-forward, inky Black Reds.

In fact, right now, you’re loving them more than the Black Reds from ANY other country in the world. Even more than the traditional heavyweights from Australia and Argentina.

How do we know? Because you told us. The six reds in this case alone boast over 4,200 5-star reviews between them.

Look out for luscious Vinha do Fava, our No.1 bestselling Portuguese red, and iconic Lobo e Falcão, from Joana ‘J-Lo’ Lopes – the ‘queen of Portuguese Black Reds’. And don’t miss Baía de Tróia, a triple-Gold-medal winner made only in top vintages. Plus there’s Number Ten, a totally new kind of Black Red with all the flavour you love, at just 10% alcohol.

Yours from as little as £7.99 a bottle, these Portuguese stars are simply too good to miss.

Italian indulgence HUSH-HUSH LUXURY STEAL

SAVE £48 on an under-the-radar Italian red that’s stealthily clocking up 5-star reviews

With its supple texture and wonderfully rich fruit flavours, this decadent red has quietly built a loyal fan base. In fact, it flies out of our cellars so quickly each year, we barely have time to promote it.

But this time we want to make sure you’re in on the secret ... before it’s too late.

You see, the winemaker dries the grapes for La Fonte d’Oro two weeks before pressing – hugely intensifying the concentration of the juice. In fact, it’s the same method used to make northern Italy’s famous (and pricey) Amarone.

But – unlike Amarone – La Fonte d’Oro is made from dark, fruity Negroamaro and Primitivo grapes that are already superbly ripe, thanks to the abundant southern Italian sunshine.

The result is a sumptuous red that’s become a huge hit with our customers. A previous winner of our coveted ‘Top-rated wine of the year’ title, it consistently racks up 5-star reviews.

Even without the £48 saving, La Fonte d’Oro is a great buy. At ~~£14.99~~ £10.99 a bottle, it’s an absolute steal.

But remember, this indulgent red sells out quickly each year – and will do even faster now the word is out. Order soon to secure your share!

YOUR EXCLUSIVE

LEGENDARY ESTATE

friends-only deals

Over 50 years, we've built close ties with some truly legendary estates.
Here's a special-access selection from four of the finest,
yours individually or in an epic showcase ...

Silky Gran Reserva from Rioja's elite

Few would question the legendary status of Familia Martínez Bujanda. Listed among the World's Top 50 wineries for nine years on the trot, it's one of the finest bodegas in all of Rioja.

This luxurious 2010 Gran Reserva is one of their top reds. Made only in the finest vintages, it's matured for two years in oak barrels and many more in bottle.

Silky smooth with intense red fruit and complex notes of cedar, spice and liquorice – a really special red and a 'must try' at this price.

"An utterly beautiful wine. Would buy more in an instant if I could find it"

Top-drawer Malbec from the makers of Lafite

When Barons de Rothschild, owners of Bordeaux First Growth Château Lafite, invest in an Argentinian estate, you know the results will be good.

Especially when the wine is made by Nicolás Catena – an internationally renowned winemaker and winner of Decanter 'Man of the Year'.

And that's exactly what you have here ... Argentina's signature red grape, with the finest possible pedigree. A beautifully pure, expressive Malbec, with blackberry, cherry and plum fruit, and notes of violets.

"Full of fruit, smooth to drink. Excellent wine"

Classic Aussie Shiraz from a Barossa legend ...

Barossa is the heartland of great Aussie Shiraz and Peter 'The Baron' Lehmann is one of the region's biggest legends.

A fifth-generation winemaker, he looked after Barossa's smaller growers when times were tough – and they rewarded him with the pick of their grapes each vintage.

Peter's name lives on in this classic Barossa Shiraz. Deep and rich, with dense blackberry fruit, dark chocolate and spice ... it's hugely satisfying, and cracking value with today's deal.

"Lovely example of a Barossa Shiraz with great depth ... Just yum!"

From a royal estate ... claret fit for a prince

Another pedigree red from the owners of a First Growth Bordeaux estate – this time £500-a-bottle Haut-Brion.

In fact, the grapes for this rare red come from vineyards owned by Prince Robert of Luxembourg! And, as he owns some of the finest estates in Bordeaux, you can be sure it expresses the very best of the vintage.

Released only when ready to drink, this is a beautifully mature Médoc showing all the generosity of the 2016 vintage. Supple, rich and long ... perfect for a special occasion.

REFRESHING summer sipping

Pinot Noir fans ... don't miss this elegant red from the Loire. Light, fruity and best served slightly chilled – just £7.99 a bottle

Burgundy isn't the only place in France where you can find great Pinot Noir. Head to the Loire and you'll find light, refreshing reds like Le Fief du Temple – just the ticket for summer sipping.

Made in the thirst-quenching style that's popular with our customers right now, this elegant red is ideal served gently chilled. And it's great value too.

Because each year, sixth-generation winemaker Noël Bougrier selects top-quality grapes from across the entire region to create a deliciously easy-drinking Pinot Noir. A big hit with the critics, it's just won a Gold medal – for the second time in two vintages.

A fruit-forward, light-bodied red, ideal served gently chilled. Pop it in the fridge for 30 minutes and enjoy in the sunshine or with charcuterie and soft cheeses.

Champion winemaker
Jean-Marc Diffonty

Loved by fans for its reliably delicious reds, the Rhône is "the best value classic wine region in France" (The Times). Headlining this selection, you'll find Domaine de Valori (normally £26) – a luxurious Châteauneuf-du-Pape from an award-winning winemaker – followed by top picks from over-performing estates.

Look out for Le Prince de Courthézon, La Porte des Princes, and Willem the Silent. All are from vineyards next door to Châteauneuf, but without the famous appellation on the label, they offer great quality at a fraction of the price. Plus you've Cuvée du Vatican from Jean-Marc Diffonty – with all the herb-tinged, bramble fruit of classic Côtes-du-Rhône. With four Gold-medal winners in your case, you know you're in for a treat. And they're yours today for just £8.99 a bottle.
